

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE wedding of Miss Elizabeth Price, daughter of the late Thomas Randolph Price, was celebrated at noon yesterday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Robert Wright Forsyth, rector of the church, officiating.

The altar and chancel were decorated with palms, Easter lilies and candles. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the processional, Rubinstein's "Melody" in F, during the ceremony, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional.

The group of attendants included Miss Andrea Warwick Mathews, of New York; maid of honor, Mr. George H. Houston, of Covington, Ky.; best man, Misses Mary Stuart Hope, of Louisville, Ky.; Margaret Murdaugh, of Washington; Nannie Montague, of New York; Kate Lyons, of Charlottesville; and Katherine D. Lancaster, of Richmond, bridesmaids; Messrs. Herman Mapes Houston, George Latt, Brent Woodhouse, of Covington; Norman B. Beecher, of New York; William L. Price and William L. Foushee, of Richmond, groomsmen.

The maid of honor was wearing a pale yellow gown with a white collar and yellow straw hat with lavender and white ribbons. The bridesmaids had on frocks of lavender crepe de chine, straw hats garnished with lavender hydrangeas, and held bouquets of yellow daffodils.

The bride came in with her uncle and godfather, Mr. Thomas H. Norwood, of Ga. She wore an ivory satin gown, a princess and an train, with berthe and panels of point lace, a tulle veil and orange blossoms.

A wedding breakfast, limited to intimate friends and relatives, was given at 12:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, at No. 614 West Grace Street.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robb Houston, of Covington, Ky.; Miss Mapes, of Lockport, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Norwood, of Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Price, Mrs. Meredith Montague, Messrs. J. Turner Attenbury and Richard H. Bateson, all of New York; Mrs. Thomas F. Ballard, of Washington; Mrs. T. Barton Lyons, of Charlottesville; Miss Triplett, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Moses M. Green, of Warrenton, and Miss Nina Johns, of Norfolk.

Wright-Alvey.
In Park Place Methodist Church, at 6:30 P. M. yesterday, Miss Ida Floyd Alvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Alvey, of No. 813 West Grace Street, was married to Mr. Luther Thomas Wright, son of the late James C. Wright and Mrs. Nellie Wright, of Caroline county, the Rev. M. S. Colonna officiating.

The decorative color scheme was in yellow and green, yellow candles in silver candelabra, and daffodils massed against a background of palms. The music was directed by Mr. D. D. Briggs, Jr., the organist. Miss Lucile Savage Alvey, wearing a satin embroidered empire gown of yellow net and lace over yellow messaline, and carrying a large arm basket of yellow spring flowers, was maid of honor, and Mr. Henry H. George, Jr., was the best man.

The ushers were Messrs. Francis Edward Carter, H. Brannock Carlton, George Moffett King, H. Selden Taylor, Jr., Harry Coghill and Walter Crump Cottrell.

Master Warner Lewis Fleming and Master Edward Alvey, Jr., dressed in braided suits of cream broadcloth, were the ribbon-bearers.

The bride came in with her father, who was wearing a white tuxedo with a white waistcoat and a white bow tie. She was wearing a white gown with a white collar and a white veil. Her flowers were lilies of the valley.

After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make their home in Richmond.

Dance at Hermitage.

Easter lilies, palms and Southern smilax made a beautiful setting for the dance of the younger society set at the Hermitage Golf Club on Wednesday night. The orchestra discoursed sweet music from behind a palm screen. Mr. and Mrs. William F. Chambers were the chaperons of the evening, and a delightful supper was served at its close.

Among those present were Miss Mabel O'Ferrall, wearing white over green tulle; Miss Martha Fitzgerald, in pink chiffon cloth; Miss Frances Wheat, in white embroidered batiste; Miss Fanny Crenshaw, in white lace; Miss Martha Martin, in white mull; Miss Jack Stearnes, of Philadelphia, in pink and white silk; Miss Lois Richardson, in pompadour chiffon; Miss Katherine Gunn, in white silk mull; Miss Marie Harwood, in Nile green chiffon cloth; Miss Lucile Massey, in blue crepe de chine; Miss Keene, in yellow radium; Miss Gertrude Crenshaw, in white mouseline; Miss Richardson, in yellow organdie; Miss Mamie Pilkington, in corded-plaited yellow radium; Miss Alexandria Mitchell, in white organdie; Messrs. Paul Christian, Olin Richardson, Ernest Allen, Walter Lefew, John M. Miller, Hunter Camp, William Grigg, Oley Miller, Thomas Neal, Henry Staples, Jennifer Sutton, Jean Sutton, Mitchell Sinton, Jack Evans, William Davidson, Trevillian Turner, Elliott Ready, Larkin Glazebrook, Jr., Tazewell

Kaufmann & Co.

Special Suit Sale.

To-day we inaugurate a special clearance sale of Women's Tailored Suits to make necessary room for our daily increasing stock of summer apparel.

AT
$9.75

Suits Sold Up to $15.00.

AT
$15.00

Suits Sold Up to $25.00.

These reduced garments are not a "job lot" or specially bought to originate a "sale." By keeping in mind the high standard of "Kaufmann's" merchandise you will quickly grasp the importance of this sale.

EVERY FAVORED MATERIAL, including shadow stripe serges, fancy mixture Panamas, &c. In all we have about 150 garments, and sizes partly broken, which will mean that those anxious to secure one must be here early.

Carrington, Samuel Waddill, William Hoppe, William Sydnor, Walter Wrenn, Alfred Crenshaw, Lawrence Parsons and Mr. Redcliffe, of New York.

Hitt-Parson.
The marriage of Miss Carrie Parson to Mr. Clarence C. Hitt was celebrated Wednesday in the parlors of the Rev. Dr. Bruner, of Washington, who performed the ceremony.

The only attendants were Mrs. James D. Hitt and Mr. Hitt, who accompanied the bride and groom from Richmond to Washington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Lee Parson, and has many friends in the West End. Mr. Hitt is in business here. When Mr. and Mrs. Hitt return from a trip to the Northern cities and Niagara Falls they will reside at 2903 East Broad Street.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Bernard Conrad, youngest daughter of the late Dr. Daniel B. Conrad and Mrs. S. L. Conrad, to Judge Adam Clarke Carson, of the Philippine Supreme Court, at Manila.

The wedding will be celebrated in Christ Episcopal Church, Winchester, May 12th, at 5 P. M., the rector of the church, the Rev. William D. Smith, officiating.

The bride will be given away by her brother, Mr. Daniel B. Conrad. Miss Elizabeth Whiting Conrad will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids: Misses E. Tucker McGuire, Frances Peyton Page, Augusta Conrad, Lucile Weems and Jeanie Strother, of Winchester, and Miss Elizabeth L. Worthington, of Washington.

Mr. William E. Carson, of Riverton, will be best man, and the groomsmen: Mr. William Davis Conrad and Mr. John S. Wise, Jr., of New York; General Clarence B. Edwards, of Washington, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs; Mr. Carpenter, secretary to Hon. William H. Taft; Dr. Stuart McGuire, of Richmond; and Mr. Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Winchester.

Judge Carson is now on his way to Winchester, and is expected to arrive early in May. He will take his bride to New York for a brief trip and will sail with her on June 10th from San Francisco for Manila.

Organ Recital.

Mr. Leslie F. Watson, for many years the efficient organist of the First Baptist Church, now occupying the same position at the Second Baptist Church, will tender a complimentary organ recital to the members, congregation and friends of the Second Baptist Church on Monday night, at 8:30 o'clock.

Glee Club Concert.

The music-lovers of the city are looking forward with pleasure to the concert to be given Thursday evening, at the Jefferson auditorium, by the Randolph-Macon Glee Club. This aggregation of young musicians has won the highest praise from competent critics wherever they have appeared. As this is the glee club's first appearance in Richmond, it is confidently expected that a large audience will avail themselves of this opportunity. Miss Eula Bailey, the accomplished dramatic reader, will assist in the program.

Excursion to Williamsburg.

One of the most delightful outings of the spring season will be an excursion to Williamsburg on Saturday, May 2d, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Society of the Second Presbyterian Church. Williamsburg is fast becoming the Mecca of all true Virginians, appealing as it does to old and young alike, because of its delightful Colonial and ante-bellum atmosphere and its historical associations. Those in charge of the excursion will do all in their power to render the occasion pleasant and profitable. Dinners and refreshments will be sold by the society.

Tickets are for sale at T. A. Miller's and Mrs. T. William Pemberton, at 620 West Franklin Street; Mrs. John A. Cooke, Jr., of No. 1614 West Grace Street, and all other members of the society.

Musical at Woman's Club.

The Loving Circle of King's Daughters, of which Mrs. T. William Pemberton is leader, will give a vocal and instrumental concert at 8:30 o'clock this evening at the Woman's Club.

Features of the musical will be a string quartet, several solos, the Covenanters' orchestra, and violin numbers by Little Miss Annie Fulton, of Fredricksburg.

To Attend Archbishops Ball.

Several young gentlemen of Richmond, among them Mr. Kent Rawley, expect to attend the Archbishops Ball, to be given by the daughters of Senators and Representatives in Washington, at the Arlington Hotel.

Mr. Rawley is a friend of Miss Williams, of Mississippi, and also of Miss Bessie Lamb, who is the president of the Archbishops.

To Place Window in Blandford.

Mrs. M. E. Pilcher, State president of the Tennessee Daughters of the Confederacy, has appointed Mrs. William Hume, of Winchester, as the memorial committee to secure funds for placing a window in Blandford Church, Petersburg, according to a pledge made by the State at the Gulfport convention in 1906.

Mrs. Hume is a Virginian by birth and has done valuable work in Tennessee in behalf of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. Members of her committee are F. W. Ring and Mrs. Henry Skeggs.

Edwards-Barrett.

A very quiet but pretty marriage took place at "Newville," the home of the bride, in Sussex county, at noon on Wednesday, the contracting parties being Miss Ella Owen Edwards and Mr. Frederick Barrett.

The lower floor of the house was decorated with varied spring flowers. Only a few intimate friends were present, and no invitations were issued on account of a recent death in the bride's family.

The Rev. W. W. Edwards, the brother of the bride, officiated. Misses Mabel and Helen Edwards attended their sister, and were attired in dainty frocks of white silk and Valenciennes lace.

The bride, who looked charming in a going-away gown of dark blue cloth with hat and gloves to match, is a very popular and attractive young lady, and the groom is a well known young business man. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple were driven to the station, where they boarded the train for their future home at Gaile.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. A. Dettelbach, who has been recuperating at Atlantic City for several weeks, is now the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Heller, at 1835 West Grace Street. Mrs. Dettelbach will return to her home in Louisville, Ky., about the 1st of May.

Mrs. E. A. Craighill, of Lynchburg, is visiting Mrs. P. H. Harris.

Mr. E. J. Warren has been the guest of Mrs. T. D. Ransom in Staunton.

Carter Hall, near Millwood, in Clarke county, has been bought from Mr. Eben Richards, of New York, by Mr. Towson, of Staunton.

Carter Hall is considered one of the finest estates in Virginia.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Greenway Russell have been guests during their wedding trip of Dr. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac W. Russell, of Winchester.

Miss Rosalie Milnes is the guest of Miss Louise Jones, of Norfolk.

Dr. Thomas Nelson Page will deliver the commencement address at Randolph-Macon Woman's College on June 2d, in Lynchburg.

The wedding of Miss Ethel Wister, of Philadelphia, to Mr. Arthur M. Chichester, Jr., of Iyon, near Leesburg, was scheduled to take place at 10 o'clock this evening, when Miss Margaret King Collier, daughter of Mr. Robert W. Collier, and Mr. Robert McKenney Collier, an exceedingly popular young couple, were married, the Rev. Dr. W. C. Taylor, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony.

The bride, attired in an elegant gown of flet and duchesse lace, with illusion veil, and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, entered the church with her brother, Mr. C. Fisher Collier, who gave her away. Miss Alice Collier and Mrs. Samuel Wilson, sisters of the bride, attended her as maid of honor and matron of honor. Mr. Charles H. Cuthbert, Jr., the groom's brother, was best man, and the following gentlemen were ushers: Messrs. Russell Wallace Collier, George W. Harrison, J. V. Parham, T. Stanley Beckwith, Richard Percival and James E. Cuthbert. Little Misses May Whitworth

Willson and Dorothy Nosworthy were flower girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert left for New York on their wedding tour.

Hargman-Hogart.

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 23.—A beautiful home wedding occurred last night at the residence of Mrs. Lucile V. Lucado, No. 400 Church Street, when her niece, Miss Arline N. Hargman, became the wife of Mr. H. H. Hargman, son of Captain and Mrs. Frank P. Hargman, Dr. W. A. Barr, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, was the officiating minister.

Miss Lucile Dougherty, of Gainesville, Tex., was the maid of honor, and Mr. C. T. McDaniel, of this city, best man. The bride was given away by her cousin, Mr. A. W. Lucado. The other attendants were Mr. H. H. Hargman and Mr. William Young, of Freeburn, Ky., and Miss Margaret Lucado and Harriet Hargman were the ribbon girls.

A reception was held after the marriage, 200 invitations being issued to the guests. The party was served by Miss Blair Danister and Mrs. James A. Scott, while the guests were ushered into the dining parlor by Mr. H. H. Hargman. Miss Edith Montgomery, Mrs. Hubert Watts and Mrs. J. Frank West, wife of Mr. Hargman, left last night for Freeburn, Ky., where Mr. Hargman is engaged as a coal operator in connection with his father. The bride, a native of this city, is a very attractive young lady with a host of friends.

Gunlach-Carey.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BURKEVILLE, VA., April 23.—Miss Beatrice Carey and Mr. Louis Gunlach, of Richmond, were married Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Carey, the parents of the bride. The parlor was handsomely decorated with Easter lilies, growing plants, ferns, etc., and shaded lamps, the whole presenting a beautiful scene.

The Rev. Dr. Carey, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, celebrated the rites impressively in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bridesmaids were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

Lewis-Powers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BERRYVILLE, VA., April 23.—The marriage of Miss Alice Burnett Powell, of Berkeley, Clarke county, to Mr. Reverdy Lewis, of Berryville, Clarke county, was solemnized today at high noon at Auburn, the bride's home, by the Rev. Mr. Cowling, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Front Royal, Va.

The maid of honor was Miss Powers, sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. W. Travers Lewis, of Berryville, Va. The bride was given away by Mr. Lewis, brother of the groom, and the groom was escorted by Mr. Lewis, brother of the groom.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.

The bride was handsomely attired in white, the bride's dress was carried by the bridesmaids, who were Misses Pearl and Bessie Carey, sisters of the bride; the ushers were Messrs. Lewis and Dr. Carey. The bride was given away by Mr. Carey, brother of the bride, and Otto Gunlach, brother of the groom. Little Miss Gay Carey acted as flower girl, and carried the bride's train.